SUBJECT: ORDINANCE CREATING SECTION 116.01 THROUGH 116.20 City Manager's Office

Attached please find an Ordinance creating sections 116.01 through 116.20, the Pawnbroker and Secondhand Dealer Ordinance.

Pawn shops, second hand dealers and precious metal dealers are regulated by two separate state agencies with similar, but different requirements. For example, pawn shops are required to hold purchased items for thirty days, but pawned items must be held for sixty days. Precious metals and second hand dealers are only required to hold items for fifteen days.

In fact, some pawn shops are obtaining a second hand dealers license in order to avoid the thirty day hold for purchased items. All three businesses currently report their received items to the St. Lucie County Sheriff's Office.

The Port St. Lucie Police Department ("PSLPD") has found a direct correlation between habitual burglary suspects supporting their drug habits by burglarizing residents, and immediate sales of stolen items to the aforementioned businesses. By the time the items are reported stolen to the PSLPD and the Detective Bureau has had the opportunity to investigate, the items have often already been sold, or in the case of jewelry, melted down, and the evidence is lost.

The PSLPD is attempting to implement an ordinance that requires a longer uniform holding period which would provide enough time for them to investigate items that have been reported stolen. The ordinance would also require the businesses to report received items electronically, and on a daily basis per Florida State Statutes. The PSLPD, St. Lucie County Sheriff's Office, and the County and City legal departments have worked together on drafting their applicable ordinances, and the County's has passed, effective January 1, 2012.

Please place this Ordinance on the City Council Agenda for first reading at the next council meeting.

Please advise if you have any further questions in this regard.
